An act to provide for amendment to Section 181 of the Constitution of Kentucky.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such a brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. If you have any trouble with your stomach try a box of these Tablets. You are certain to be pleased with the result. Price 25c. For sale by W. N. Craig.

Owes His Life to a Neighbor's Kindness.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than 24 hours. IN a so-called sermon at Cartersville, Ga., Sam Jones declared that the people of Cartersville would "prefer a sober, decent Negro to hand them out their mail to a dirty dog who was using his official position to sell wine and call it dope." Next morning the postmaster attacked the preacher, but instead of turning the other cheek when smitten, Jones landed a lick in his antagonist's eye and shut it up. It is a wonder somebody hasn't done Jones up before this. The fact that he fights as well as he talks has doubtless prevented it, for nobody cares to go against a buzz saw.

TEDDY is an inappreciative fellow. A Boston girl devoted many hours of work and between one and two hundred thousand stitches to the making of a beautiful silk flag, which she sent to President Roosevelt. The flag was returned to her with this note from the president's secretary: "I beg to state that while the president greatly appreciates your courtesy in sending him the enclosure, which you forwarded, he has felt obliged to adopt a rule which precludes him from accepting presents from any one." Probably it is money the broncho buster had rather have.

IN the course of his remarks at Hodgenville, Gov. Beckham took occasion to say that he believed with the Harrison county jury that Curtis Jett and Tom White were guilty of the murder of J. B. Marcum, and they would not receive executive clemency at his hands. It would be no trouble to get Col. Belknap to make the same promise in these cases in the event he is elected governor. Jett and White are both democrats and the man they assassinated was a republican. It matters very materially with the iceburg colonel whose ox is gored.

THE democrats of Maryland in convention at Baltimore, nominated Edwin Warfield for governor; Gordon T. Atkinson for controller and Wm. Sheppard Bryan for attorney general. The convention was controlled by Senator Gorman, although he was not in attendance. The principal plank in the platform is devoted to the race issue.

KENTUCKY will be saved. Secretary of the Treasury Shaw has accepted an invitation of Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes to make several speeches in this State for the republican ticket. We suggest that Mr. Shaw go at once to the bloody 11th and there use his might to carry that district.

THERE is a good deal of revived discussion upon the advisability of calling out "obey" from the marriage service. But it is a waste of time and words. In the future as in the past women will cheerfully promise to obey and then make things lively for the man who tries to enforce obedience.

POLITICAL.

A bill has passed the Alabama House of Representatives prohibiting baseball, foot ball, tennis or golf on Sunday. Judge J. S. Denton, collector of internal revenue, will probably succeed Congressman Boreling in the 11th district.

Ernest C. Smith, of Carrollton county, has announced for the democratic nomination for Congress in the Sixth district.

Nat C. Cureton, of Henry county, was nominated for railroad commissioner by the republican convention of the Second district.

An order has been issued to the effect that officers in the territories must not serve as chairmen of any political committees or organizations.

Commissioner Richards, of the General Land Office, has dismissed W. E. Murphy, chief clerk to the Surveyor General of Arizona, for alleged irregularities.

This is the way the Somerset Journal sizes up Jarvis, the republican nominee for circuit judge: "Great is the fall, my countrymen, from Fox, Owsley and Morrow to Jarvis!"

The grand jury at Jefferson City, Mo., is investigating the methods employed by Col. R. C. Kerins to secure the republican nomination for United States Senator last January.

Col. Morris Belknap, republican nominee for governor, says his work in the present campaign will not be from the stump, but that he will make a "personal canvass" of the State.

Senator Carmack says he intends to open the race problem discussion in the next Congress in hope that some solution may be obtained. He believes in the separation of the races.

The democrats of the 23rd judicial district at Beattyville nominated Robert Riddle, of Estill county, for circuit judge and J. K. Roberts, of Lee county, for commonwealth's attorney.

John M. Sullivan, of Jamestown, has announced as an independent candidate for circuit judge of the 29th judicial district. His device will be a likeness of Abraham Lincoln. H. C. Baker, of Columbia, is the republican nominee, while Hon. Rollin Hurt, also of Columbia, is the democrat.

President Roosevelt declined to attend a yacht club dinner at Oyster Bay because Sir Thomas Lipton, the famous yachtsman, was among the guests. The nigger loving, social equality advocate seems to be getting particular as to his associates, but it strikes us that it was Lipton who should have kicked.—Lexington Democrat.

Col. Dan Moore is credited in his home paper, the Harrodsburg Democrat, in the following language, with having manipulated the recent judicial convention in the Danville district with the well known result, the defeat of Saulsley and Owsley, who had such a tremendous following all over the district that they were denied a primary by the machine managers who sympathized with the other candidates: "That he acquired while a Senator, much practical knowledge of parliamentary law was evidenced by his course and method of dealing with the recent Danville judicial convention."

Col. Moore may be proud of the part he played in that affair, but those thousands who were denied a voice at the polls, while supporting the winners, will not relish the diplomacy with which Col. Moore is credited by his too-outspoken admirer in his home paper.—Climax.

THIS AND THAT.

Dr. J. H. Carpenter, aged 88, is dead at Millersburg. Edward French, widely known as a minstrel, died at Saranac Lake, N. Y. Fifteen lives were lost by the wrecking of a schooner off the coast of Maine.

The condition of United States Senator Scott, of West Virginia, is most serious.

County Attorney J. D. Tuggle, of Knox, and Miss Susie Root, of Corbin, were married.

Burglars robbed the safe of the Wells-Fargo Express Company at Santa Barbara, Cal., of over $1,000.

U. S. Senator Redfield Proctor, of Vermont, was arrested and fined in New York State for shooting a raccoon out of season.

The secretary of war has granted the request of the eighth regiment of the Ohio National Guards to represent that State at the West Point maneuvers, and it will be assigned to the fourth brigade with the Kentucky troops.

Columbus Garrison, the only survivor of the bloody tragedy at Mt. Victory church in Pulaski county, in which Peace Officer William Bolton was killed, was tried and held for murder in the second degree, with bail fixed at $2,000.

A Boy's Wild Ride For Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at all drug stores.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Elbert J. Lyman has been appointed postmaster at Mountain Ash, Whitley county.

The Citizens' State Bank, of Middlesboro, with $25,000 capital stock, was incorporated.

Clay Colson, nephew of D. G. Colson, shot and killed Frank Zuliger in a fight at Middlesboro.

James Kincaid, of Danville, died of apoplexy while seated in his arm chair reading a paper.

Montgomery Lodge of Odd Fellows will celebrate the 59th anniversary at Harrodsburg to-day with an old-fashioned picnic.

Charles Henry and David Young, farmers, fought at Junction City. Young used a knife and Henry a pistol but neither was badly hurt.

The Middlesboro and Southern railway has acquired the lands and mines of the American Association, Incorporated, in Claiborne county, Tenn., and Bell county, Ky.

The death of A. P. Bruce, of Danville, leaves but one survivor of the famous eight members of the Lincoln and Boyle county companies who were in Gen. Morgan's command and escaped when that famous cavalryman was captured in Ohio and that is A. Tribble, of Junction City.

What Is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjust this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at all Drug Stores.

UPHELD.—Judge Saufley upheld the Farris local option law in the Boyle circuit court. Every feature of this law has been attacked and Judge Saufley's decision was a severe blow to many violators in Danville who had appealed their cases from the county to the circuit court.—Advocate.

BOREING.—Congressman Vincent Boreing died at his home at London at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning of double pneumonia. He had been twice married, his first wife being a Miss Farris and his second who survives him, was Miss Sarah Randall. Five children, all by his first wife, also survive. He was born in Washington county, Tennessee, November 24, 1839, and at the age of nine he came with his father to Laurel county, and began his education at Laurel Seminary. At 21 he entered the Union army as a volunteer in Company A, 24th Kentucky Infantry.

He soon rose from the ranks, and was commissioned First Lieutenant. In the battle of Resaca, Ga., he received a severe wound, from which he suffered until the day of his death. Judge Boreing first entered politics in 1868, when he was elected county superintendent of public schools. In 1870 he was again a candidate for the office and was re-elected. Soon after he founded the Mountain Echo at London and continued in the newspaper business 10 years, and was then elected county judge. In 1888 he was elected president of the First National Bank of London, and continued to be president up to his death. He was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and represented the Kentucky Conference as a lay delegate in the General Conference of 1880, held at Cincinnati, Ohio. At the time of this conference he was an ordained minister of the M. E. church, and since then had preached in various counties of the mountains. He was chosen Department Commander of Kentucky, Grand Army of the Republic in 1889. His highest ambition was realized when he was elected a member of the 56th Congress, defeating Hon. John D. White in the primary and the Hon. H. H. Tye in the regular election. He was re-elected to Congress in 1900 and 1902, defeating some of the strongest men of his party.

The burial will occur at London at 3 o'clock this, Friday afternoon and a number of gentlemen from this place will attend.

Of Galveston, Texas.
"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."
By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder Theodor's Black-Draught should be used.

KINGSVILLE.
Rev. R. H. Jones, of K. U., Lexington, is expected Sunday to fill his appointment at the Christian church.
Mrs. Bradley, who lives near the Park, had a gold watch stolen during the reunion. It was taken from the mantle in her room.
Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Baker and daughter, Lena, went to Cincinnati Sunday. Mrs. Baker will remain some time to select fall millinery and also learn the art of trimming.
There's to be a wedding in this little city before many moons. A very charming young lady and an excellent young man. They didn't tell us not to tell, but we won't disclose names for awhile.

Pretty Miss Otis Faulkner, of Highland, was a recent visitor in our town. Manfred Chevrolet, of the C. S., who was struck by a train a few weeks since severely injuring his right arm, is gradually recovering and will soon resume his R. R. duties. He is so universally popular that his friends do not object to his invalidism in the least since it puts him in his home town.

The G. A. R. reunion held at Kingsville's beautiful park, was a grand success. We understand it was a financial success and certainly everybody seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent the entire three days. Kirk Boone, of Somerset, was on hand but didn't bring a single "hornet." The speaking was excellent, not political but patriotic. Hon. P. M. McRoberts spoke entertainingly and on the day following Hon. W. Conn Bell made a fine speech, paying a beautiful tribute to woman, thereby winning all hearts to his cause. Hon. W. S. Burch made a charmingly brief introductory speech. Judge Sautley's speech was greatly admired, as is the Judge himself in this section. Revs. Carrier, Davidson and others delivered excellent addresses. The Crab Orchard Band furnished appropriate music for the occasion.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of being present at the banquet given by the Sunday School of the Christian church at Kirksville Monday evening. About 175 children partook of the bountiful refreshments.

Finley Davis, of Livingston, is the guest of his parents. Mrs. Annie Adams has returned from a visit to Cincinnati. Mrs. Belle Henderson has gone to Indiana to visit her brother, Tom McRoberts. Miss Ella Smith is visiting in Mt. Vernon. Will Gaffney, who has been sick, is improving. Mrs. Minnie Jennings has returned from Cincinnati, where she has been to buy fall millinery. Wm. Dishman, of Barbourville, was the guest of Misses Callie and Sallie Adams. Mrs. Fannie Kilgore and little daughter, Jennie, who have been spending the summer with her father, John Parks, returned to their home in Texas. Miss Martha Zell Makely, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of the Misses Lear.

A WOMAN'S COMPLEXION.—It is rank foolishness to attempt to remove sallowness or greyness of the skin by the use of cosmetics, or "local" treatment. The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, which can only be accomplished by keeping the liver healthy and active. The liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the liver, cleanses and enriches the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most pronounced and distressing cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. New trial size bottle, 25 cents; regular size, 75 cents. At all druggists.

In county court at Richmond an order was entered directing the curators of the estate of Gen. C. M. Clay, to dispose of at public auction to the highest and best bidder the household effects, live stock and personal property belonging to Gen. Clay. The date of sale is Oct. 8.

At Lebanon, Kan., Mrs. Mary Williamson was murdered, and her 12-year old daughter and aged mother brutally beaten by some person.

Indictments have been returned by the Livingston county grand jury against Young E. Allison, editor, Geo. Riley, correspondent, and the Herald Publishing Company, of Louisville. The indictments are the result of certain charges made against Superintendent H. V. McChesney in the columns of the Herald.
